 - ii. Currently only at about 20%
 - iii. 76% of what we make goes to teachers and teacher salaries

3. Teacher's Corner

- Teachers' Report - Ms. Ericastilla
 - Nothing new to report, but keep in mind for conference week, teachers plan on being honest and telling you all the truths (whether good or bad) in order to help your child. Mostly all positive, but the conferences are there for a reason and meant to help.

- Thank you for your patience during conference week!
- Principal's Report - Mr. Lempert
 - Two weeks since we came back from break
 - Started with Kindness Week and quickly got back into the swing of things. Did a refresh on our BRAVE expectations as we enter into the last few months of school.
 - PAL leaders helped lead the charge and set a good example
 - Many exciting things are going on around campus and it all can't be done without the support of staff and parents.
 - Parent Conferences: Great way for teachers to connect with parents and celebrate student growth.
 - Know that teachers are looking at assessments, data and working on ways to help students
 - A lot of behind the scenes work going on
 - Congrats to the 25/26 PFO board. Very impressed we already have the board set and also the 25/26 calendar!
 - Taking meetings and planning tours for families interested in coming to Harbor View next year.

4. Announcements

- Community Outreach - Candice Kuhn + Vanessa Blauer
 - Imagination machine assembly coming up! If your child's story was chosen, parents have been notified. Assembly for students and parents of winners only.
